

Event Code of Conduct

We firmly believe in the value and importance of an environment where all Amazon Selling Partners feel welcome and safe. This Code of Conduct explains what type of behavior we expect from Amazon Selling Partners interacting at live and virtual events, and across blogs, online forums, and social media. A key purpose of our Amazon Seller Events, both live and virtual, and community engagement across social media forums is to foster and encourage community discussion. The terms of this Code of Conduct are non-negotiable. We will not tolerate behavior that runs counter to this Code of Conduct.

Behavior

- You will behave in a way as to create a safe and supportive environment for all Amazon Seller Events participants (including Amazon employees, moderators, attendees, vendors, sponsors, speakers, and volunteers).
- You will not engage in disruptive speech or behavior or otherwise interfere with the event or other individual's participation in the event.
- You will not engage in any form of harassing, offensive, discriminatory, or threatening speech or behavior, including (but not limited to) relating to race, gender, gender identity and expression, national origin, religion, disability, marital status, age, sexual orientation, military or veteran status, or other protected category.
- You will comply with the instructions of the moderator and any Amazon Seller Events staff.
- You will comply with all applicable laws.

Scope

We expect all event participants (including Amazon employees, moderators, attendees, vendors, sponsors, speakers, and volunteers) to uphold the principles of this Code of Conduct. This Code of Conduct covers the main event and all related events (social or otherwise). Amazon employees participating in Amazon Seller Events must continue to abide by all company policies at all times.

Consequences

Breaches of this Code of Conduct may result in disqualification from participating in future live and virtual events and from engagement across Amazon Selling Partner blogs, online forums, and social media channels.
